Kenana Knitters

Naomi joined Kenana in 2014, prior to this she was working in sales promotion for beauty products. The income that she was earning was not enough to meet her needs for rent, transport, food and children's education.

After discussions with her Husband, they agreed that she should try and get a knitters position at the workshop. She then asked one of our knitters, Ruth Wambui to introduce her.

Naomi is a mother of three, her youngest son Lenny is a frequent visitor to the knitter's workshop. Lenny can be found on most days cruising around the workshop floor on a scooter.

Kenana has been a great place to work, I have made friends, met women from other parts of Kenya and even joined self-help groups. I have been able to raise my son while working here and my other children are in school. My husband really likes that I work here at Kenana. He is very proud of the work I do.
