

Transition - Mary Ngotho

Changing lives stitch by stitch

Kenana Knitters

Mary Ngotho joined Kenana Knitters in 2007 as a casual worker and a few years later in March 2009 she joined the permanent staff. She worked with us until the March 31st 2018 when she retired on medical grounds. Sadly Mary died a month later on 30th April 2018.

Mary was a good and steady worker, she was always very punctual to work. Her work involved knitting of new patterns, as well as other day to day tasks at the knitters.

She was the mother of Anthony Ndungu, who is a teacher. She leaves behind her loving son, daughter in law Alice and grandson Lewin.

Shine on your way Mary
